Centralina Council of Governments

REGIONAL CONFERENCE

MARCH 7-8, 2019

This event, full of big-picture inspiration and locally-relevant solutions, offers educational, networking and skill-building opportunities for elected officials, civic leaders and others who want to build vibrant communities. Keynote Peter Kageyama, award-winning author of For the Love of Cities and Love Where You Live, will share how to create emotionally-engaging places, and Keynote Tim Lowry will demonstrate how a well-told story can impact presentations, social media campaigns and conversations. Breakout sessions will provide creative strategies for economic growth, housing, transportation, cyber security, healthcare, redevelopment and emergency response. AICP credits available both days.

Centralina Council of Governments is a regional council of more than 60 local governments in the greater Charlotte area. Every year we convene hundreds of the region's top elected officials, city and county managers, planners and business leaders to discuss issues confronting local governments and share best practices. Since 1968, our mission has been to drive prosperity and quality of life in the Centralina region.
